

Mobility and flexibility with the new Professional Office Bluetooth Chat Headsets SONA PRO and SONA by Speedlink

The noise-canceling microphone ensures quiet and concentration at the office and home office

Heeslingen/Germany, May 30, 2023 – Speedlink presents the new Bluetooth chat headsets SONA PRO and SONA, the perfect companions for long working days at the office or at home. They convince with a powerful, rechargeable battery as well as high wearing comfort.

Flexible use: Wireless or cabled

Telephone and video conferences can be held completely undisturbed thanks to the modern noise-canceling microphone with noise suppression and integrated mute button. In wireless mode, the headphones have a range of up to ten meters, which provides sufficient mobility of movement.

The powerful battery guarantees up to 40 hours of talk time and the SONA PRO can be fully recharged in the compact charging station within just three hours. Furthermore, both headsets can be charged during use via the convenient USB-C port and the included cable. The ultra-light design, the comfortable headband and the soft ear cup guarantee maximum wearing comfort – even during long use.
