AUDIVIS Conference Webcam 1080p FullHD, black

The AUDIVIS Full HD Conference Webcam means business. With its generous 100° wide angle of view, this camera is ideal for presentations and video conferences with several people. What's more, the webcam is sure to impress with its excellent full HD resolution, which always guarantees detailed, razor-sharp images. The precise integrated microphone as well as the two powerful built-in speakers guarantee perfect communication even in a lively atmosphere, making the AUDIVIS a compact all-rounder. Thanks to plug & play and the three metre long cable, this webcam is incredibly flexible. The universal bracket can be easily adapted to different conditions and offers so many options for positioning and aligning the camera. If you don't want your image being transmitted, the manual lens cover provides additional security and privacy.
