

RGB on your ears – Speedlink presents the new VIRTAS Illuminated 7.1 Gaming Headset

Perfectly equipped for the next gaming adventure

Heeslingen/Germany, 31 March 2022 – The new VIRTAS Illuminated 7.1 Gaming Headset delivers impressive 7.1 surround sound for upcoming gaming sessions and visually brightens up any setup.

7.1 surround sound headset with custom software

Thanks to its intense and realistic sound reproduction, the VIRTAS is ideal for first-person shooters and can give gamers the decisive advantage in numerous situations. The 7.1 surround sound can be configured via your own software and brings the action directly to your ears.

Comfortable gaming with flexible headband and microphone arm

The VIRTAS enables crystal-clear voice transmission. The microphone arm can be adjusted according to your needs so that you can communicate with your fellow players – even during heated battles. In addition, the flexible headband and ultra-soft ear cups provide the necessary wearing comfort for hours of gaming. With the cable remote control, the volume can be adjusted with a flick of the wrist, the microphone can be muted with a slider and the RGB lighting with breathing effect can also be switched on or off.

Availability

The illuminated VIRTAS 7.1 Gaming Headset will be available from the beginning of April for 49.99 € (RRP).
