

Modern technology combined with slim design – the new RIVA Slim Metal Scissor keyboard by Speedlink

The high-quality keyboard is available from May and provides an excellent typing experience

Heeslingen/Germany, April 6, 2023 – The new RIVA keyboard by Speedlink makes long workdays particularly easy. The keyboard is available from May and not only looks stylish, but also convinces with its pleasant handling.

Sophisticated scissor switches for increased productivity

The RIVA Scissor Keyboard fits on any desk with its chic, slim design and creates the basis for relaxed days at the office or home office with its modern technology. The full-size keypad and seven multifunctional keys allow an easy and comfortable typing. The straightforward unit uses scissor switches that provide excellent typing feel and increased productivity even after hours of typing. In addition, the scissor switches ensure a pleasantly flowing touch and are nearly silent during operation. To prevent the RIVA from slipping, it is equipped with a stable metal base and rubberized feet.
